COMES NOW the Defendant, Deshawn Hernandez, and moves for an Order of this Court releasing her from custody until her sentencing scheduled for July 28, 2011. In support thereof, the Defendant shows to the Court that after a year of detention she was released pending trial to parent her three small children. That during the period of pretrial release she has abided by all terms thereof. Ms. Hernandez does not represent a flight risk and can use the time to care for her three daughters and secure a place for them to reside and be cared for during her expected incarceration. Her criminal history is minimal.
